The Boys from Costa Rica

Although Deportive Saprissa is a club team, it is virtually the Costa Rica national team as eight of members represented their country in the last World Cup series.

In addition, with the tourists are four internationals from other clubs as guest players.

Impressive record

Thhe clubs home record is impressive — national champions seven times and runners-up twice in the last 10 years.

The Costa Ricans are now seasoned tourists, having played in Central America, Europe and Hongkong on their current trip.

They will present a different type of soccer to which most Australian fans are familiar — the type of play which won the Brazilians the World Cup.

Their style is that of the rapier rather than the sabre — a style in which balance, speed, ball control and physical fitness are a must.

WELCOME

We 'welcome the Costa Rican team Deportivo Saprissa to New South Wales.

This is the first occasion a team from Americas has ever visited this part of the world.

The prowess of the South American teams is well known following their success in the last two World Cup series.

Costa Rica, which included eight members of Deportivo Saprissa, went down narrowly to Mexico, 0—1.

Their defeat of Austrian team Rapid and champion Czechoslovakian team Dukla Prague was an outstanding performance.

We certainly hope they maintain that standard in their current tour.

Their visit to this country is confined to New South Wales, due to circumstances beyond their control.

However, we hope that their stay in New South Wales will be a pleasant one and that they may take back to their part of the world impressions that might induce the even more famous Brazilian teams to visit our country.

Hearts set pattern for top displays on tour

Heart of Midlothian playing at half pace overwhelmed Australia by seven goals to one last Saturday.

When you consider they only left Scotland at 4.00 pm the previous Friday, lost nine hours in the process, eating breakfasts when they should be eating dinner, and, on top of all this, had to play at a temperature of over 70 degrees you'll get some idea what they'll do when they warm up.

Their display was invigorating.

Seeing soccer played from the goalkeeper to the centre forward with such demoralising precision is a spectacle rarely seen in this country.

Seldom did they use the same method to beat an opponent, a foot, hip or shoulder movement threw their opponents in one direction while they and the ball went in another.

Their tremendous effort, combining speed, energy and ball control was a credit to the joint efforts of Manager Tommy Walker and Trainer Johnny Harvey.

All this was noticeable, despite the fact that the opposition was a mere "shadow" of what could hae represented Australia.

All the way from New Zealand

Visiting Sydney for the Hearts and Deportivo Saprissa tours is Mr John Young, from Palmerston North, New Zealand.

Mr Young is Vice President of the New Zealand Soccer Association.

He was born in Springburn, Glasgow, Scotland and has been in New Zealand for 63 years.

He is general manager of a successful seed and produce business in the southern half of North Island.

Mr Young is a former, President of the New Zealand Association, which position by tradition must be relenquished after two years in office.

He has toured Japan and Great Britain in recent years.

Reminiscing, Mr Young recalled players of famous Scottish clubs — Arnott and Smillie of Queen's Park; Jock Drummond and Dickie Gould of Rangers; Kenny Campbell, Dan Doyle and Willie Maley of Celtic.

MOTHER CAREY'S CHICKENS

Well! we've just about heard everything. Suggestions of a boycott of the Federation—Costa Rica match next Saturday May 16 by a a radio sporting commentor is just about the limit.

Boy! are we scared?

We challenge the commentator to go ahead with his threat and we'll prove just how far removed he is from guaging public opinion.

Why, he wept tears of blood when he heard that "poor" Jack Skolnik only got 17,000 spectators plus £5000 for the Hearts game.

Now read on:—

The (Australian team was chosen one week before it played Hearts.

Players received notification of their selection through the press or through their clubs — no official notification that they may cherish for the rest of their lives.

Only five at training

They were supposed to gather at the Cricket Ground last Thursday for a training session and photographs for special supplement in an afternoon paper.

Only five, I repeat, five players turned up.

The training was cancelled and the lads dispersed.

One player who travelled about 600 miles did not know where he was billeted, so he arranged his own accomadation.

No blazers were given to the players prior to the fixture.

Two men were contacted at 8.30 am on the day of the match and asked if they could rush to the Sports Ground and massage the Australian players.

No coach was appointed to give the team some advice on what tactics to use against the "wily sons of Caledonia".

Select your own team

Following the withdrawal of the Federation Squad, a new teams was selected for Newcastle which was not acceptable to the northern organisation.

Mr S. Storey, Australian chairman, was advised and this is what happened:

Mr Barwick, Queensland representative, was asked to "send down another couple of players".

Two names were mentioned and accepted.

A Sydney paper was advised not to print the original team as Newcastle didn't want it, and that two more players were arriving and the team would be selected later.

The programme editor was in a quandry — he had no team to put in his programme.

Player of the Week

KEITH LEARMONTH

Corrimal's burly centre-forward, Keith Learmonth, scored four grand goals last week and his speed and deadly shots bewildered Budapest defence. ..

Learmonth made many openings for his other attacking team-mates. and. his .great match shows he still is a thorn in the side of any team and will have to be considered again this season as one of the top Federation goal-getters.

PROGRESS POINTS: G. Vasvary (APIA) 9; P. Peters (Corrimal); R. Burns (Corrimal, R. Young (Corrimal) 7 each; R. McLelland (Gladesville), J. Curry (Canterbury), J. De Pyper (Syd. Aus.), J. Pretswell (Gladesville), L. Baumgartner (Prague), K. Jaros 6 each.

... ROUND BALL TALK IN SYDNEY ...

Mr WILSON STRACHAN, Hearts Director travelling with the touring Scottish team, has made an excellent impression on the Australian people.

His speeches at receptions are delightful to hear.

Mr Strachan, who is Vice-President of the Heart of Midlothian, is also a member of the Scottish Football Association.

☆

Mr BOB TAIT, another Director travelling with the team, was selected to travel because of his lighthearted attitude towards life.

He only requires a "berry" and kilt to to complete his make-up.

The price of homes here appals him, as does the closeness with which houses are built to each other.

Back home he makes an excellent brand of chocolates and supplies most of the important world Embassies in Scotland.

☆

Mr J. C. FORD was another Director who was to have travelled with the Hearts on their world tour, he became ill before departure and had to stay behind.

His brother had settled in Western Australia since his retirement five years ago.

They were to have met on Hearts arrival in Sydney last week.

A note of sadless struck, when news was received of the death of Mr Ford in Edinburgh last Saturday.

☆

THE RECEPTION to the Hearts following the Australia game on Saturday was a fabulous affair.

Held at the Manhattan, one of Sydney's plushiest hotels, the food was really scrumptious.

After the Manhattan reception, Mr T. Rogers, the man on the "mike" invited the writer to a "party" at a prominent radio personality's home.

During the evening there was great hilarity when several "patients" went "under" to his hypnotic spell.

On the way home the writer tried it out on him — and it worked!

Tom, while under the "spell", performed miracles with his car by driving through what was otherwise an impenetrable forest on his way home.

There were no obstacles that could not be surmounted and it is to the engineering ability of Mr Henry Ford and the durability of Dunlop tyres that we all survive to tell the tale.

☆

Mr KERWIN MAEGRAITH one of the world's leading caricaturists was at the Hearts —Australia game last Saturday and obliged by sketching a few of the personalities of the day.

We hope at a later date to let you see some of his lifelike sketches in this paper.

☆

Mr ALEX THOMPSON, a member of the Gladesville club missed seeing the Hearts game.

A dyed-in-the-wool soccer fan, Alex spent the week in hospital.

Jimmy Wardhaugh and WillieBauld, however, surprised him by paying him a visit and giving him a coveted badge and autographed picture of the Hearts team.

☆

AUBURN'S full back, Jim Cardiff has retired after 11 years with the club.
He started with them, when Auburn played Southern League and has always been credit to the game and his club.

All soccer fans regret his loss, but wish him well for the future and know he will only leave friends behind now that he has hung up his boots.

☆

GRANVILLE prides itself on the appearance of its ball boys — I. Tye, K. Pritchard, J. Pritchard, M. Wilson and G. Crelly — who turn out immaculate in the jeyseys donated by club supporter Tom Neil, of the Rosehill Hotel.

The inimitable Ken Hawkins has at least one fan, a youngster named Gordon Pritchard, who is always on call to carry his idol's gear at all "away" games.

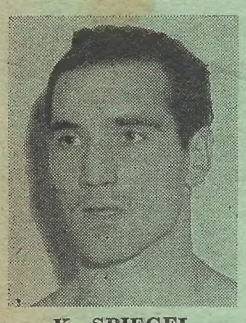
Sunday games preview

Hakoah and Budapest are nowhere near the top of the Competition table, but I think their first-ever clash can be nominated as the "match of the day" on Sunday.

Both club have a big following in the Eastern Suburbs and a good crowd can be expected to see this game, which one hopes for the good name of the code — will not turn out to be a "grudge' match.

I understand the clubs have not quite ironed out their differences.

Hakoah were most unconvincing last week and can thank Spiegel for the scoreless draw.



K. SPIEGEL

The former Admira Vienna star made many brillant saves and was, with opposing goalie Lindner, the best man on the ground.

Once again the Hakoah forwards failed to impress and this display, following their great win over North Side a fortnight ago, must stamp Hakoah as one of the Federation's most incosistant teams.

Few teams however can match Hakoah when they really settle down to good football.

They certainly have the "name" players to do very well, but they somehow fail to "click" under pressure.

Last week the stubborn Granville side certainly applied the pressure and the match was a thriller with both back-lines outstanding.

Once again, the Budapest defence flopped badly when the team went down 9—2 against Corrimal.

Though the score was really no indication of the trend of play, the visitors' halves and backs were simply appalling.

This is a great pity, because the forward line is fast-moving, clever and has great thrust, with Galambos always a menace near goal.

If the Budapest defence can hold Hearn, Biro and Forgacs out, then the visitors, who incidentally will be the home team on Sunday, could surprise.

But it is hard to see the team improving so much in a few days.

The whole back and half lines need to be reshaped if Budapest is to play an interesting part in First Division competition.

I expect HAKOAH to win, but Budapest may pull something out of the box and treat fans to a repitition of their "classic" against Prague on the same ground earlier in the season.

The Auburn—Gladesville match at Mona Park should be very interesting, and the clash between the solid impregnable Gladesville defence and the nippy opportunist Auburn forwards will be well worth seeing.

Auburn were beaten last week after a thrilling ding-dong battle with Sydney Austral.

Quested was apparently very tired after his great display the previous day against Heart of Midlothian when he was Australia's best player.

Morrow seems to have lost his early season form, but will no doubt recover very quickly and

F. HEARN

Pettigrew, McLelland and Pretswell will have their hands full with Morrow, Hall and Knapp.

This should be a fast and thrilling match and I expect AUBURN's greater all-round ability to win the day for them.

But Gladesville must be conceded a good chance and, as the team has made a speciality of drawing matches I would not be unduly surprised it the same ended in a DRAW.

Auburn badly need the points if they are to remain near the top four position.

The Granville—APIA match is also a "First" in Sydney grade soccer and this too could be a fine game.

Both teams play a totally different style, but both are pleasing to watch and Mac-

R. MARSHALL

Arthur Park fans should be delighted with APIA, who are among the very best teams this season.

APIA played a good match against a remarkable North Side United last week, and although Schio had a complete off-day, I expect the tall, lean youngster to play much better on Sunday.

Cuneen will have be at his best to bubdue him.

Jaksa and Vasvary have perfect ball control and this may prove too much for Granville, although Kendall and Marshall are no mean proposition either.

However, I think APIA could win this match.

Granville are coming up slowly and improving in every department with every match.

Their draw on Hakoah's home ground last Sunday was well deserved.

The defence was impressive, but the wingers lacked imagination, which actually seems to be what most of the team really lacks to take it to the top.

But as I have already written before, the Magpies will no doubt improve and restore themselves in the near future to their former glory.

Sydney Austral have done it again! Their great 2—1 win over Auburn of the State's very best club sides, stamps them as real a threat this season.

The team will take some stopping now that all players are brimming with confidence and so they should be after all their good wins.

No team must ever be too lightly, but I feel SYDNEY AUSTRAL will hold too many guns for the hard-trying Concord.

Lambert Park fans could see an interesting match, as Concord might recover some players from National Service Training service and illness.

Evans will have to match Bilbey, and the Concord defence will have to be flat-out if they are to subdue their opponents's speedy wingers De Pyper and Smit.

The latter is really playing beautifully this season and could come into representative calculations if he keeps it up.

Soccer growing force on the South Coast

What is the future of Rugby League on the South Coast and its chances of drawing a greater number of spectators than soccer?

The South Coast Times poses this quetrim.

The Times said:

The opening of the 1959 Illawarra Cup series, the main attraction at the showground, old rivals Wollongong and Port Kembla drew one hundred fewer spectators than attended the Federation soccer clash between Prague and Balgownie at Balgownie Oval.

At recent meetings of the Illawarra League, the previously banned word "soccer" has been mentioned on several occasions.

Districts Leagues departed from the complacent and smug attitude and realised for the first time the growing popularity of Soccer.

Hats must be taken off to the soccer authorities, especially those connected with the Federation, for the way they have presented the code.

Co-operation

Also to clubs for their unstinted co-operation and assistance in publicising games, fixtures and anything of news value.

Then look at the other side of the picture, Rugby League clubs are reluctant to mention any news about club doings for fear "it may get into the newspapers or on the air".

2nd Division

Corinthians played a goalless draw with the Liverpool team, Dalmatinac, last Saturday at Waverley Oval.

Playing without their regular first team wingers, Alfie Miller and Roy Johson, both of whom were unfit, the Corinthians forward line lacked its normal punch.

The Dalmatinac side attacked strongly at the start of the game and kept up the pressure for about 20 minutes, but the Corinthian defence held.

Gradually Corinthian gained the advantage and turned defence into attack.

The second half found the Corinthians still very much on top, but although they hit the post and the crossbar on two occasions the luck was against them.

Then George Kenny, their most effective forward, was brought down in the penalty area when in a good scoring position.

Corinthians 2nd. grade had yet another win when they beat Dalmatinac 2nd grade by 2—1.

England's skipper "plays on"

Billy Wright will play for Wolverhampton Wanderers and England as long as they want him.

He said this recently in answer to a suggestion that he is to retire at the end of the season, having made his 100th appearance in full internationals.

"Why should I retire," he said, "when I feel I still have more good football in me and when I enjoy playing as much as ever I did"?

Future champions in curtain-raisers to international games

By "SPOTLIGHT"

You people who were in attendance at the Sports Ground last Saturday, saw as an early match to "Hearts" v "Australia" an under 12 years challenge match between Canterbury and Granville, and sincerely hope that you enjoyed it.

This week the New South Wales Junior Soccer Football Association presents two more games as curtain-raisers to the Costa Rican match.

The first will be an under 12 years game between St. George and Bankstown.

This will be followed by an under 10 years match between Sutherland and Manly.

The organising of these Junior Associations takes much work, and the number of boys playing soccer is increasing daily.

To enable these boys to receive proper coaching and managing, many workers are required.

Help needed

If any of you people would be interested in assisting in Junior Associations — be it manager, coach, committee member, or even raffle ticket seller — your assistance would be greatly appreciated.

Please contact Mr Bill Brackenbury, 3 Keir Avenue, Hurlstone Park, Telephone LL 2137, the Secretary of the New South Wales Junior Assiciation, who will gladly give you the name and address of the secretary of your local Junior Association.

The managers, selectors and coaches for the Granville District rep. teams for 1959 are:

Under 10: Messrs R. Sanders (Waratah), R. Hopkins (Auburn), W. Parkhouse (Toongabbie).

Under 12: Messrs K. Stokes (Waratah), C. Kerslake (Auburn), J. Charlton (Toongabbie).

Under 14: Messrs T. Rogan (Auburn), L. Walker (Waratah), J. Burtenshow (Kewpie).

Under 16: Mssrs C. Drummond (Waratah), A. Wright (Blacktown), V. Smith (Waratah).

Under 18: Messrs S. Delaney (Seven Hills), A. Christie (Waratah), A. Davidson (Auburn).

Officials for the All-Age rep. team have yet to be selected.

Granville Association's first "matches of the day" at MacArthur Park proved to be very satisfactory, considering the Hearts were playing in Sydney.

Granville officials expect their "matches of the day" to draw good crowds, once public has the opportunity to witness the good standard of play.

The Association this weekend will again present "matches of the day" on MacArthur Park.

Fixtures are:

Under 12: Auburn A v Waratah A 12,15 p.m.

Under 16: Guildford A v Auburn A 1,30 p.m.

Seniors: Wenty Waratah v Dundas 3,00 p.m.

Referees Harold Parsons and Ken Foster are to give weekly lectures to the newly-formed St. John Marist Brothers (Auburn) Soccer Club's players.

Granville

Granville Thirds remain unbeaten as a result of a win against more experienced and seasoned Hakoah last Sunday.

Granville played two men short in the opening minutes and came from behind on two occasions.

The youngsters showed great determination under adverse conditions.

J. Morris received a cut mouth requiring four stiches.

T. Rush was carried from the field unconscious the result of a throat injury.

Nugget Francis suffered to knee and ankle.

The forwards B. Hay, M. Wainwright, T. Rush, C. Rankin and I. Morris made the most of their opportunities.

Rankin scored two goals.

Two incidents in the reserve grade against Hakoah made the day a memorable one for players, both occuring in the final minutes of play.

Left half J. Stevenson was ordered off the field and centre forward E. Reusche scored in the last 35 seconds left of play giving Granville a 2-all draw.

Injuries to Ray Marshall enabled Hungarian L. Paszina to play centre forward for the firsts.

Paszina, 22, has been in Austria 22 months.

He also has played with Victorian team JUST.

Victorian News and Views

From L. K. STONE

Match of the day at Olympic Park last Saturday between JUST and Polonia, which ended in a 1—all draw, was a complete flop.

Both goals were the result of defensive errors, the scorers being Engelbogen for Polonia and Negjus for JUST.

Bob Wemys, Polonia's skipper, recently returned from Scotland, still lacks physical fitness and will have to improve his condition to hold his place in the Polonia team.

Polonia I understand, will shortly strengthened by the arrival of four top-class players from Poland.

So dull was the match that spectators started to stream out of the ground long before the end, and even the referee thought his watch had stopped.

Best for Polonia were Penzo, Engelbogen and Guardiani, and for JUST Reuyters, Radic and Schroeder.

Confortable win

Settling down quickly and having the better in early exchanges , Slavia coasted to a confortable 3—0 victory over Box Hill.

Armstrong who scored two of the Czechs' goals, was the best player on the field, with Box Hill's new captain coach Angus Drennan a close second.

A few friendly words of advice to Billy Gook — try to make the ball and not the opposing goalkeeper your objective.

You will preserve your energy for real football and you will serve your club, Slavia, much better.

A relentless George Cross defeated Wilhelmina 2—0 in a game which often reached a high standard, despite some unnecessary incidents.

The newly-imported George Cross inside left, Falzon, was the outstanding player on the field and can surpassed the brilliant Mike De Brueykere, who was recently appoined State coach.

Another good game was the clash between Yarra Park and Footscray.

The result was 5—4 in favor of Yarra Park.

Footscray perhaps were a little unlucky to lose Kyle through injury in the second half.

Dona, Footscray's inside forward, was in a class of his own and also scored the best goal of the match.

At Olympic Park on Sunday afternoon, 8000 spectators saw Hakoah beat their great rivals, Juventus, 2—1 in a memorable game.

I am sure if the English Cup Final had not been televised at the same time as this great match took place, and had it been a sunny afternoon, a League record crowd for Victoria would have been recorded.

Hakoah were unlucky to lose McIvor and Reid almost immediately after the start of the game and Juventus, who in consquence dominated all the game expect the last 25 minutes, must be considered unlucky to lose both points.

For long periods, it was Juventus forwards versus Hakoah defence, during which goalkeeper Mannering repeatedly saved the Blues in a great performance.

Played brilliantly

Juventus deservedly led 1—0 at half-time, but all credit to Hakoah's nine fit men, who played on in brilliant fashion.

When Meier equalised there was no holding them, and it was Meier again who scored the much applauded winning goal.

After that, even the two cripples same to life and McIvor, a passenger from the first minute, nearly scored a third goal, but that would have been quite undesered.

For Hakoah, all played as well as expected, but I thought Hartley and Thomas deserve a special mention.

Juventus played good football throughout — Boz, Barbazza, Trentini and Vitti in particular.

Letters to the Editor

INTERSTATE VIEWPOINT

In an article which appeared in "Soccer World" of 8/5/59. it was inferred that in a Melbourne broadcast I decried the standard of play in Federation football.

As many persons not only in Victoria, but other States and overseas enjoy reading your paper I feel that a correction should be made.

The alleged statements were purported to have been made during a broadcast in which I interviewed the captain of the Wilhelmina Club, Bill Westerveld.

As Mr Westerveld played in Sydney some two years ago and has since visited Sydney, I was of the opinion that he would be able to give listeners an accurate opinion of the comparative standards of play.

The same week, as Editor of "Soccer News" (Victoria), I publicised the fact that a new body had been formed to control soccer in New South Wales and expressed the wish of many soccer followers that New South Wales and Victoria should resume their inter-state matches.

I did not at any stage of the interview infer that Len Quested at 38 or 39 was the best player in New South Wales and that soccer was being built around him.

As I have not had the pleasure of watching clubs playing in New South Wales it would be impossible for me to make any such statement.

Secondly, I did not "get" Mr Westerveld to support me in the contention that soccer in Victoria is of a higher standard than New South Wales soccer.

Again, I reiterate, as I have not seen Sydney soccer, I could form no opinion.

S. Beaton,
Secretary-Manager, Victorian Amateur Soccer Football Association.

Mr X: "What'll we do"? Programme Ed.: "We'll have to pick a team. Can't you pick it now?

Between them they picked the team for Newcastle.

Again the players received notification through the Press or secondhand.

Of course, you all know the results and so to do the players to their bitter experience.

In the circumstances is it with pride that those lads can one day say, "I once representated Australia at soccer"?

Now, what of the Federation:

For the first time in the history of soccer in Australia the Federation inaugurated a coaching school for youth and for junior coaches, allocating £1000 for this purpose.

Up to £1500 has been paid to professional coaches to lift the standard of soccer in this country.

Wealthy businessmen have contributed vast sums of money towards the importation of star players from overseas.

Spent £25,000

One club alone has contributed £25,000 in two and a half years.

Forty years ago training squads were common features of up and coming sccer countries.

This year the Federation implemented such a scheme, whereby a group of players were gathered together in order that a methodical system and understanding would be developed among them.

It was timed for a certain day — May 16.

All organisations were notified that this Squad was in training and it was suggested that it should not be interfered with until after the due date.

Eeryone, we repeat, EVERYONE, was aware of this which, is common practice oerseas.

The Federation made a decision and in order to do justice to the Squad, was determined to maintain it to keep faith with soccer and would-be soccer followers.

The Squad were fitted out with blazers, gray trousers, tie and socks for the occasion.

They were billeted at Camden, for the finishing stages of their planned training.

Last week they were presented to the 17,000 crowd at the Sports Ground, in full uniform, and received a tremendous ovation.

This shows that certain Sydney Press reporters are completely out of touch with Federation matters and public opinion.

This, of course, applies to the radio commentator, who is cocky enough to stick out his neck and talk of boycotting the Federation promotion against Costa Rica tomorrow — May 16.

We invite him to go ahead so that we may prove to him that the source of his information has been totally out of touch with public opinion.

Yes! Saturday, May 16 is "Fderation Day", because it is the only day on which, from an Australian point of view, soccer representatives will take the field with pride and honor.

Australian and Continental SMALLGOODS

FROM the SIDELINES

By TAD TARG

EVEN MONEY.—

I am going to stick my neck out.

Seldom I do that, but this time I can't help it.

But first — a couple of simple statements.

The team Australia fielded against Hearts last Saturday was weakest I have seen.

Australia played with only three men — a full back (K. O'Neil), a half back (L. Quested), and a forward (K. Learmonth).

Australian selectors would have done much better if they had picked one of the six top Federation club teams to play Hearts.

Corrimal, for instance.

Corrimal, or "South Coast", always did well against visiting teams, beating some, drawing with others.

Or they could have picked a Federation "B" team.

This would not only put the match in its proper perspective, but the opposing teams would have been a little more evenly matched.

Now — and this is it — I think that if it came to a game between Federation "A" team (Baumgartner and Co.) and the Hearts, which is still a possibility later this month, the outcome of such a match could prove quite encouraging for Australia.

I don't say the Federation would beat Hearts, but I give them an even chance.

☆☆☆

IN RECENT COMPETITION matches some players frequently abused ballboys for their allegedly slow retrieving of balls.

Overseas, according to a statement made by Hearts manager, Tommy Walker, players retrieve balls themselves.

In addition — only one ball is used.

Here, players are being served by half a dozen ball boys with as many balls.

The ballboys, on an average, are well drilled and efficient.

There should be no cause for complaints, let alone abuse.

☆☆☆

CLARIFICATION URGENTLY NEEDED.

When was the Australian Soccer Association notified of the FIFA ban on players imported from Austria?

Before they picked them to play for Australia or after?

Some report say FIFA notified Mr Storey & Co. BEFORE, but they announced it only now as a disciplinary measure against the Federation.

It would mean the Australian Association was prepared to use "disqualified" players as long, as they played for them, ban or no ban.

This outlook reminds me of a small black boy's answer, when a missionary asked him to describe the difference between sin and a good deed.

The little African said: "A sin is when Kali steal my bread, and a good deed — when me steal bread from Kali".

In view of what has happened, we DEMAND A STATEMENT.

We, the soccer public, want the truth.

We want Mr Storey to tell us when he was notified and, if reports are accurate, why the announcement was withheld for so long.

Points on the rules

By SCOTIA

I listened recently to a few spectators debating the question of ungentlemanly conduct.

I was both amused and amazed at the points put forward.

What constitutes "ungentlemanly conduct"?

Law 12 refers to two kinds of conduct:

1) Ungentlemanly behaviour and

2) violent conduct.

Although the law deals fully with the latter offence it makes little reference to the former.

The responsibility therefore of judging whether ungentlemanly conduct has been committed rests entirely with the referee.

For instance, should a player shout, "Let it go", or deliberately make an improper remark — and this applies to a remark to a member of his own team, too — or an improper gesture to a spectator, his conduct may be considered "ungentlemanly".

A referee, of course, has to control the game in the "spirit" as well as the "letter" and may allow a player reasonable scope to "let off steam".

From my experience I find it better to allow a player to "let off steam", provided it is not too loud nor intended as an insult.

Should a player be guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, in addition to a "caution" an indirect free kick should be awarded.

He cannot be sent from the field for this offence unless he has previously offended.

Of course, abusive or obscene language may be termed violent conduct, for which a player may be "ordered off".
